COURSE TITLE:

Embroidery

DURATION:

10 sessions

ABOUT THE COURSE:

This course is for both experienced and novice embroiderers, for anyone who loves stitching and wants to know more. Alternatively, it can be for someone who wants to try a new hobby that is both relaxing and challenging in a friendly environment.

The course covers all counted thread embroidery techniques including hardanger, whitework and canvas work; as well as free-style embroidery and needle weaving. You will gain knowledge of different embroidery materials and threads and how to colour them, and how to finish off and show your work.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS:

Interview or course specific application required? ~~Yes~~ / No

Prior knowledge / experience: No previous experience is necessary, just a desire to stitch.

STUDY AND ASSESSMENT:

The course is organised through a variety of projects so the students can learn and practise all the techniques. Projects are chosen by students from a portfolio. Group and individual projects are catered for.

Students choose to do as much work at home as time allows. Projects are finished at student's individual pace.

PROGRESSION OPPORTUNITIES:

You may wish to continue the course or try a different course such as Patchwork and Quilting.
