COURSE TITLE:

Award in Counselling Concepts Level 2

DURATION:

2.5 hours over 10 weeks

ABOUT THE COURSE:

This course offers an introduction to counselling. It aims to enhance and improve verbal and written communication skills, whilst providing learners with an understanding of what counselling is about, and enabling them to compare and contrast with other helping relationships. The course is one of the first steps onto a counselling career and will give learners an understanding of what counselling training entails. It is stage one of our 4 stage qualifications in order to become a qualified counsellor.

The course is ideal for people who are seeking a career change, undertaking voluntary work, wanting to enhance career prospects with additional qualifications, or simply thinking of training as a professional counsellor.

Learners will cover the following units:

- The professional context of counselling
- Communication skills in helping relationships
- Personal development
