What will I learn?

You will learn the fundamental aspects of working in a business from financing and marketing to dealing with customers effectively. Additionally, the course will help you develop skills that are essential for the modern-day workplace. These skills include: team working; working from a prescribed brief; working to deadlines; presenting information effectively; and accurately completing administrative tasks and processes.

How will I be assessed?

You will complete eight units during the year. Six of these are coursework and two of them are exams. The coursework will consist of a mixture of written and practical activities. Last year we went to Enterprise Headquarters where students took part in a customer service role play activity which formed part of their coursework.

Where might it lead?

Success in this course could lead to you studying BTEC Level 3 in Business . It may also help you gain an apprenticeship
